

For Immediate Release
July 12, 2007

Contact: Kristie Lozano (910) 484-4242, ext. 240

Business Council Seeks Local Candidates for President Position

The Cumberland County Business Council is seeking talented local candidates to fill the position of President. The Business Council is an almost 1400 member business organization that strives to improve quality of life by creating wealth, jobs and investment in our community. With its partners the City, County and PWC, the Business Council coordinates the community's economic and downtown development efforts as well as provides a number of opportunities to grow local businesses.

"Cumberland County's greatest resource is its people. Our residents encompass a diversity of people from all over the nation and the world," said Gordon Rose, Chair of the Business Council. "We believe there may be someone who is a fit for this position."

The President of the Business Council is responsible for the execution of a wide range of business and economic development goals set by the Board of Directors. Candidates that feel that they have the experience necessary to lead this diverse organization should contact Joan Jorgenson, President & CEO of Jorgenson Consulting, the search firm retained to facilitate the hiring, at joan@jci-inc.net.

###